FOR RESPONDENTS(S) Adv.: Ms. Esha Mazumdar, counsel for respondent no.1.
Shri Jagdish N., counsel for respondent no.2.

Notes of The Registry	Order of The Tribunal
	Shri Anuj Aggarwal, learned counsel for the applicant argues that impugned orders have been issued by the respondents ignoring the National Council for Teachers Association Amendment Act dated 11.01.2019 (Annexure A-16) and the impugned orders are also against the common order/judgment of Madras Bench of this Tribunal dated 18.10.2019 (Annexure A-17) in OA/310/00258/2016, etc. Issue notice. Learned counsel for the respondents no.1 & 2, who appear on advance service, accept notice. The learned counsel appearing for respondents seek and are allowed four weeks' time to file reply. The applicant may file rejoinder, if any, within three weeks thereafter. Learned counsel for the applicant seeks interim relief in terms of para 9 of the OA in the form of a direction to the respondents to keep one post of

Physical Education Teacher (Post Code No.19/17) vacant in unreserved category during the pendency of the OA. Shri Anuj Agarwal, learned counsel for the applicant submits that applicant duly participated in the said examination and was not only selected but was also issued an offer of appointment. However, subsequently the respondents have issued the orders withdrawing the offer of appointment and cancelling his candidature. He further submits that if some interim protection is not granted, the OA may become infructuous.

In view of the facts and circumstances, as an interim measure, it is ordered that last appointment to the post of Physical Education Teacher (Post Code No.19/17) under unreserved category shall be subject to the outcome of the OA.

List it on 29.10.2020.
